The supervisory relationship determines how social workers conduct themselves in the clinical, ethical, legal, and regulatory domains of their practice. You will learn how to develop learning plans, resolve ethical dilemmas, teach important financial management skills, explore systems/community concerns, and incorporate advocacy and policy practice. You will focus on increasing wellness and stress management skills with your supervisees, and instill a passion for lifelong learning. Most importantly, you will embrace your responsibility to evaluate the supervisee in a fair and constructive manner in order to prepare them for more independent, safe, and competent practice.
