

ASCE JULY DINNER MEETING NOTICE

Program: ASCE Region 8 and Society Overview

Want to know how your ASCE dues are benefitting the civil engineering profession and the Society membership? Society Director Tony Lau will be sharing the ASCE organization outside of the Hawaii Section and the many programs that ASCE administers to help its members matter more and enable them to make a bigger difference to help the current and future civil engineering profession.

Speaker: Mr. Tony Lau, P.E., ENV SP, F.ASCE

Tony Lau, P.E., ENV SP, F.ASCE is currently the Naval Facilities Engineering Command (NAVFAC) Hawaii Capital Improvements (CI) Civil Engineering Design Branch Manager. Tony has been involved with ASCE at the Section, Region, and Society level for 26 years. He has held the position of ASCE Hawaii Section Younger Member Forum (YMF) President, Hawaii Section President, Region 8 Governor and is currently Society Director from Region 8. Since 2002, he has served on Society-level committees including the Committee on Younger Members, Committee on Geographic Units, the Membership Committee, the Leadership Training Committee, the Committee on Scholarships, the Student Transition/Younger Member Retention Subcommittee and the Program Finance Committee. During his service, he has mentored Section, Branch, YMF and Student Chapter officers to have a vision of what they would like their local groups to be beyond their time on their boards and inspired the leaders to make a difference. He was also elected as an ASCE Fellow in 2007 - the youngest to receive this honor in the history of ASCE.
