Medicaid Non-Emergency Medical Transportation  Medicaid covers non-emergency medical transportation to ensure that Medicaid beneficiaries can get to and from scheduled medical services. Examples include going to a medical appointment, dialysis treatment for kidney disease, or picking up prescriptions at the drug store. Coverage of non-emergency medical transportation may be different depending on your individual circumstances and needs. You may need to seek approval from your State Medicaid agency to arrange for such coverage.		To Schedule a Ride:  1-855-264-6368
