A Note from Rick: A tough day for markets on Tuesday was surprisingly followed by a strong market at the Special Springer Sale on Thursday. Butcher cows definitely took the biggest hit, while Mixed Fats and Holstein Steers were off slightly. Let's hope this is just a temporary dip in the market due to large numbers of cattle coming to market. This is not a big surprise given the big change in weather and winter just around the corner. With that being said, I know that even expected downturns in the market are not welcome and can be tough when times are already tough. The silver lining this week for me was definitely the springer sale. I was really afraid it was going to be ugly this month and fortunately it wasn't. We had a tremendous Draft week last week and had a very successful sale. It takes many many people to pull off a sale of that size and we are so appreciative of our employees. Its taken a week to recover and we can definitely look back and see some improvements that need to be made, but overall we are just really thankful. See you at TLA!
