Words from the President

Hey, Guys,

Well, we did it again! Another successful car show! We had 90 paid entries and a good weather day, all be it a little chilly and windy in the morning. I want to thank everyone who worked so hard to pull it off. First, Joe Ingarra did a great job organizing everything before the show, Smitty with the horseshoes, Paula with the food, Kyle Hunt making sure the trailer was there, Skip did another great job with the music and announcements, Linda and Joe with the registration and correlating the judging sheets. Melva with the silent auction, and everyone who helped with judging, food and cleanup and I know I left out somebody, so please forgive me, but I think we have a great club that pulls together to make something like this run really smooth to the casual observer.

Next meeting, we are going to make a decision on our Annual Christmas New Year's party. We always have some great food and a lot of fun with the gift exchange. Plus, we will talk about activities for next year. Please try to make it to the meeting! The food is cheap, and the fellowship is priceless!

Meeting Minutes from October 31, 2017

(Submitted by Paula Rice)

Duane introduced himself and asked any new people to introduce themselves and tell us what they are driving.

The Treasurer's report was given.

The Miracle Cruise on Oct 7th at Nexton in Summerville had about 150 cars show up that day. Some of our members attended it. There were lots of Mustangs.

The Coastal Center hosted their annual Car Show on Oct 28th. About 75 cars showed up and most of the Mustangs were classics.

Cars and Coffee on Saturday mornings is adding another venue in Goose Creek. It's still going strong in Mount Pleasant as well.

North Charleston is hosting their Rockabillaque in Old North Charleston on Nov 4th. This is an open Car and Motorcycle Show.

Our show is fast approaching on Nov 11th. Everything has been checked and double checked. So far, 32 cars have pre-registered. If you haven't registered yet, please do so tonight.

Ken will be picking up trophies and the dash plaques are ready as well. Joe has been preparing goodie bags for the entrants. We need everyone to arrive at the site by 7:30 the morning of the show. The parking lot will need to be laid out and everything needs to be set up. If you have volunteered, please be on time. We usually celebrate afterwards at Texas Roadhouse. All are welcome to meet there when the show is over. Let's everyone make it another great show this year.

Things will be winding down for the winter and we will need to pick out a venue for our Christmas/New Year's party. All suggestions are welcome.

Our next meeting will be on Tuesday, Nov 28th at 7:30 at the C&W Super Buffet on Rivers Avenue in North Charleston.

Duane adjourned the meeting.

Just for Fun!

Sounds Right!

The teacher asked the class to use the word “fascinate” in a sentence. Molly put up her hand and said, “My family went to my granddad’s farm, and we all saw his pet sheep. It was fascinating.”

The teacher said, “That was good, but I wanted you to use the word ‘fascinate,’ not ‘fascinating’.” Sally raised her hand. She said, “My family went to see Rock City and I was fascinated.”

The teacher said, “Well, that was good Sally, but I wanted you to use the word ‘fascinate’.” Little Johnny raised his hand, but the teacher hesitated because she had been burned by Little Johnny before. She finally decided there was no way he could damage the word “fascinate,” so she called on him.

Johnny said, “My aunt Carolyn has a sweater with ten buttons, but her boobs are so big, she can only fasten eight!”

The teacher sat down and cried.

A Dog's Tale

So, this guy is driving around the block and he sees a sign in front of my house: "Talking Dog for Sale." He rings the bell and a man answers the door and tells him the dog is around back in the yard. The guy goes into the backyard and sees a nice-looking Labrador retriever sitting there.

"You talk?" he asks.

"Yep," the Lab replies.

After the guy recovers from the shock of hearing my dog talk, he says, "So, what's your story?"

The Lab looks up and says, "Well, I discovered that I could talk when I was pretty young. I wanted to help the government, so I told the CIA. In no time at all, they had me jetting from country to country, sitting in rooms with spies and world leaders, because no one figured a dog would be eavesdropping."

"I was one of their most valuable spies for eight years running... But, the jetting around really tired me out, and I knew I wasn't getting any younger, so I decided to settle down. I signed up for a job at the airport to do some undercover security, wandering near suspicious characters and listening in. I uncovered some incredible dealings and was awarded a bunch of medals."

"I got married, had a mess of puppies, and now I'm just retired."

This guy is totally amazed. He goes back to the front door and asks the owner how much he wanted for the dog.

"Ten dollars," the guy tells him.

"Ten dollars? This dog is amazing! Why on earth are you selling him so cheap?"

"Because he's a big liar! He's never been out of the yard!"

Love Dem Boots!

Brian is a nice husband. He's also a passionate Harley-Davidson enthusiast. He'd had his eyes set on a pair of Harley-Davidson boots for quite a while.

They were a bit expensive, so he held back on his purchase every time. But, one day, when he had saved enough, he went ahead and got them.

He couldn't be more excited. He wore his new Harley-Davidson boots home. He felt like a new man!

As soon as he entered the house, he sees that his wife is cooking dinner in the kitchen. He barges in, and asks his wife, "Honey, notice anything different?"

The wife says, "No"

He again asked, "Are you sure you don't notice anything different?"

"Nope."

Annoyed at his wife's negligence by now, Brian went straight to the bedroom. He removed all his clothes. He kept the boots on, though!

He barged into the kitchen again. He asked his wife again, "NOW do you notice something different?!"

By now, even the wife had gotten annoyed. So, she yelled, "No, Brian, I don't see anything different. It was hanging down yesterday. It was hanging down just moments ago. And it's hanging down now. And it'll still be hanging down tomorrow!"

To this, Brian says, "You know why it's hanging down? Because it's looking at my damn gorgeous boots!"

Never Would Have Dreamed!

I bet the first guy who threw shit into a fan never knew what an incredible legacy he would leave.

Editor's Notes

Next meeting at C&W Super Buffet, 28 Nov! Our show seems to have been a success! Continued support from our newer members, although several of them have been around a while now! Very thankful for them! We had a handful more registered than last year, and the net receipt was really nice. Should be able to make a very nice donation to Camp Breathe Easy again this year.

Remember that our club dues are collected in January! If you would like to pay those early, that would be wonderful!
