

Jim has served on the Board and as Treasurer since 2002. He is a retired business and financial professional. His career has included positions as staff accountant for a major CPA firm, founder and president of a Denver area CPA firm, CFO then president of a mining company, VP of treasury operations for a major bank, real estate and golf course developer. Jim's most recent position was Finance Director and occasional interim City Manager for the City of Benson, AZ. His prior ministries included being the financial team member for the construction of the Las Vegas Christian Academy.