

Western Range Service

Range Management Consultants Established 1968

Al Steninger, President Quinton J. Barr

P.O. Box 1330 89803 Elko, Nevada 990 Fifth Street - 89801

Call (775) 753-4007 Fax (775) 753-7900

A Nevada Corporation

wrsnrs@frontiernet.net

Western Range Service

Range Management Consultants Established 1968

Al Steninger, President Quinton J. Barr

Professional Services Description

The scope of services offered by Western Range Service may be generally described as follows:

Consultation, Analysis, and Planning

- Range Management
- Livestock Grazing Systems
- Rangeland Monitoring
- Public and Private Land Use
- Public Agency Activities
- Environmental Analysis
- Ranch Management
- Wild Horse Management Conflicts

Arbitration

Division of ranch real and personal properties and dispute resolution of ranch ownership and management issues.

Expert Witness

Qualified expert witnesses in range management before Federal and State Courts, as well as Bureau of Land Management and U.S. Forest Service administrative hearings.

Service Area

Western States, principally Nevada, Oregon and Idaho

Equipment

Office and Field: Includes computers, internet, fax, copy machine, map drafting, rangeland and water quality monitoring equipment, camping equipment

Vehicles: Include a single engine airplane (Cessna 185), four wheel drive pickups, four-wheeler, camp trailer and flatbed trailer

Clientele

Private enterprise entities which are principally cattle ranches dependent on federal land grazing permits. Other past or present clientele includes agribusiness companies, cooperative grazing districts, grazing associations, timber companies, mining companies, water districts, banks, attorneys, US District Bankruptcy Court, appraisers, accountants and other consulting firms.

History

Established by Al Steninger, 1968
Incorporated in Nevada, 1985