Well-Placed Faith

“He who did not spare His own Son, but delivered Him up for us all, how shall He not with Him also freely give us all things?” (Romans 8:32).

AS OUR FATHER, GOD ASKS US TO BELIEVE IN THE GOODNESS OF HIS FATHERHOOD. For many of us, faith in God’s character requires growth in our own character. To believe that God exists is a step in the right direction. To believe that He is “a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him” (Hebrews 11:6) is an even further step. Yet this is a step we can take responsibly. Based on what happened at the Cross, our confidence in the love of God is not wishful thinking; it is well-placed faith.

In practical terms, what does God’s goodness mean? First, we should be sobered by it. The very worst thing would be for us to presume upon the grace of our Father. Paul asks the pertinent question when he says, “Do you despise the riches of His goodness, forbearance, and longsuffering, not knowing that the goodness of God leads you to repentance?” (Romans 2:4). And he urges us to consider not only God’s “goodness” toward those who obey Him, but also His “severity” toward those who refuse to do so (Romans 11:22). But having determined to seek God reverently and obediently, we should also be encouraged by the fact that God is gracious to those who take Him seriously. If we are willing to relate ourselves rightly to God, we need not doubt that a right relationship is what He gave His Son to make possible for us.

In all that God has spoken, we must believe He has told us the truth. Most of all we must believe Him when He says He loves us. “Faith is nothing else than trust in the divine mercy promised in Christ” (Philipp Melanchthon). We can’t claim to have read the Bible thoughtfully if we’ve not noticed its emphasis on God’s goodness. And we can’t claim to have taken its claims seriously if we’ve not been touched by the tenderness of God’s invitation to trust Him. “For He Himself has said, ‘I will never leave you nor forsake you.’ So we may boldly say: ‘The Lord is my helper; I will not fear’” (Hebrews 13:5,6). We may have learned many things since we were young, but none of our adult thoughts is more profound than the simple one that we sang in our childhood: Jesus loves me! this I know, for the Bible tells me so.

Today’s Bible Quiz Answer

c) Mount Nebo

Deut 31:24-27

24 So it was, when Moses had completed writing the words of this law in a book, when they were finished, 25 that Moses commanded the Levites, who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD, saying: 26 "Take this Book of the Law, and put it beside the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, that it may be there as a witness against you; 27 for I know your rebellion and your stiff neck. If today, while I am yet alive with you, you have been rebellious against the LORD, then how much more after my death?" NKJV

Deut 32:44-47

44 So Moses came with Joshua the son of Nun and spoke all the words of this song in the hearing of the people. 45 Moses finished speaking all these words to all Israel, 46 and he said to them: "Set your hearts on all the words which I testify among you today, which you shall command your children to be careful to observe — all the words of this law. 47 For it is not a futile thing for you, because it is your life, and by this word you shall prolong your days in the land which you cross over the Jordan to possess." NKJV

Deut 34:1-6

Then Moses went up from the plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, which is across from Jericho. And the LORD showed him all the land of Gilead as far as Dan, 2 all Naphtali and the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, all the land of Judah as far as the Western Sea, 3 the South, and the plain of the Valley of Jericho, the city of palm trees, as far as Zoar. 4 Then the LORD said to him, "This is the land of which I swore to give Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, saying, 'I will give it to your descendants.' I have caused you to see it with your eyes, but you shall not cross over there."

5 So Moses the servant of the LORD died there in the land of Moab, according to the word of the LORD. 6 And He buried him in a valley in the land of Moab, opposite Beth Peor; but no one knows his grave to this day. NKJV
