#####

For years I have had a small plaque hanging on the wall in the den. It carries the following toast or prayer, whichever you want to call it:

Old Irish Benediction

May God sleep on your pillow,
 May He hold you in the hollow of his hand.
 May the roads rise with you,
 Fair weather to your heels;
 May the wind be ever at your back...
 And may you be a long time in heaven
 Before the Devil knows you're gone.

In a recent Ann Landers' column, a writer who signed herself/himself "Erin Go Blah in Chicago," complained that she/he was tired of the foregoing and suggested another which she/he said was much more characteristic of the Irish.

An Irish Prayer

May those who love us, love us;
 And those that don't love us,
 May God turn their hearts;
 And if he doesn't turn their hearts,
 May he turn their ankles
 So we'll know them by their limping.

Since we seem to be in the poet's corner, see next page.
