"Christians must be to the world what the soul is to the body."

For the past several weeks, our adult faith communities have been looking at holiness through the writings of John Paul II and Vatican II. These have been profoundly insightful expressions of the role of the laity in the Church and in the world. I was particularly struck by a quote from Lumen Gentium as they wrapped up the role of the Laity and just before they began a chapter on The Universal Call to Holiness in the Church.

" 38. Each individual layman must stand before the world as a witness to the Resurrection and life of the Lord Jesus and a symbol of the living God. All the laity as a community and each one according to his ability must nourish the world with spiritual fruits.(212) They must diffuse in the world that spirit which animates the poor, the meek, the peace makers—whom the Lord in the Gospel proclaimed as blessed.(213) In a word, "Christians must be to the world what the soul is to the body."(9*)

This is beautifully reflective of our Church's call to be dynamically involved in proclaiming the Good News and spreading the Love of God through word and deed. I have personally been very moved by the final sentence concerning our role as Christians being to the world what the soul is to the body.

We will be offering reflections on "Holiness" in the weekly bulletin and they will make up a part of the Sunday homily as well. We will offer study sessions on: APOSTOLIC EXHORTATION GAUDETE ET EXSULTATE OF THE HOLY FATHER / FRANCIS ON THE CALL TO HOLINESS IN TODAY'S WORLD

We will gather weekly at St. Lawrence O'Toole on Thursdays, beginning June 17th at 6pm to be followed by an hour of Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament; as well as Fridays at 11am at St. Augustine's followed by Mass and Adoration. Our sessions are also available on Zoom, by contacting the parish. We invite you to read this document, we Google everything these days but if you are not connected in that way please contact the parish. Looking forward to seeing you.

Celebrating the Year of St. Joseph

Pope Francis has declared this the year of Saint Joseph. One of the many things Saint Joseph is known for is providing for the Holy Family. With this in mind, the Adult Faith Commission is seeking to partner with organizations who are working to feed those less fortunate in our community. We recently met with Alicia Clarkson from the Peter McKee Community Garden and she gave a wonderful presentation on the work they are currently doing and their plans for the future.

When asked what their most pressing needs are she responded with “seeds and funding”. Some of the seeds they would be looking for are Carrots (Tenderly Imperator, Scarlet Nantes), Lettuce (Buttercrunch, Little Gem, Romaine) and Tomato (Prudens Purple, San Marzano). Also, gift cards to hardware stores or garden centers are always useful.

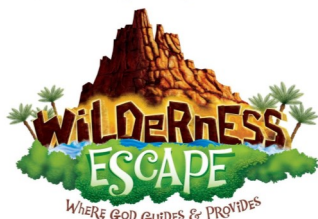

As far as funding. They currently have 101 Garden Boxes on the go; of the 101, only 16 are currently being sponsored. You can sponsor a box for $200 for the year. This will provide seeds, soil and maintenance, updates, a charitable tax receipt, and the good grown in your name will go to the food bank, or a family in need. Also, for the $200 there will be a sign put up with the information of the sponsor.

If you would like more information about this, please check out their Facebook page or email Alicia at alicia.clarkson@fooddepot.ca starting June 1st. Regular hours will begin September 7th.

THE RECEPTION OFFICE

Our Parish Fundraising Campaign has started!!

Campaign envelopes will be distributed at St. Augustine's, Saint Lawrence O'Toole and Our Lady of Mercy weekend masses on June 5th and June 6th. The introductory letter and a copy of the pre-authorized debit (PAD) form are included. If your family does not receive an envelope at mass and would like one, please contact Charlie at the parish office at charlie.farrell@gasmoncton.com or (506) 227-2967.

THE POWER OF WORDS – NOUNS AND VERBS

"Sticks and stones may break my bones but names will never hurt me!" These brave words, shouted at other children hurling insults, are simply not true. Words have power to hurt, as cyber bullying shows; and yet also have power to heal, as shouting back at bullies mitigates the pain. In the new catechism, St. Augustine is quoted as saying that the sacraments receive their power by combining words with material elements (1228). At the time of my First Holy Communion 72 years ago the words were Latin. We the people in the congregation watched the back of the priest as he said Latin words facing the wall. Those who could read followed along with the English translation in their Missals.

But are the words of consecration nouns or verbs? "Take and eat this" are verbs. "Hoc est enim corpus meum" emphasize the noun "corpus". We know that Jesus honoured the Jewish Feast of the Passover with a ritual Sabbath meal. We know of His deep knowledge of Scripture. He chose the sign of His new covenant at that ritual feast and gave all of us His followers a way to be with Him - to participate in His presence-by eating and drinking. What else do we do at a feast?

"Do this in memory of Me." Is it the verb or the noun that powers Christian life? Jesus knew that Adam and Eve "ate" the fruit of knowledge. He offered us a way to engage with Him and to celebrate in joyful ceremony our participation in the way of life He offers. "Wherever two or three of you are gathered together in My name, there am I in the midst of you." Holy Communion is not a solo flight. It is a "Communion of Saints" created by the Holy Spirit out of us sinners who have been comforted by the powerful words of Christ. The Communion hymn paraphrases the Roman Occupation soldier who interceded for his servant by saying "...but speak the words of comfort my spirit healed shall be."

Agnes Beirne
