

Ventura County
Coalition for Compassionate Care

Improving End of Life Conversations with Patients:

Focused on Training Skilled Nursing Facility Staff, Nurses, Medical Directors, Social Workers, Hospitalists and Palliative Care Teams

Saturday, February 24, 2018

Los Robles Hospital & Medical Center

Classroom #1

9:00 am to 1:00 pm

Cost: FREE if registered by 2/16/18

Late Registration $35 per person

Light refreshments will be served

Learn how to assist clients facing difficult treatment decisions

- Learn how to begin the conversation
- Discover what is meaningful for the patient
- Become skilled at how to correctly fill out a POLST form so it meets the patient's goals

Who Should Attend: Physicians, nurses, social workers

CEU's/CME's available for nurses, physicians and qualified clinicians

To Register call: Ventura County Medical Association (805) 484-6822

VC CCC mission is to promote timely advance care planning and a full understanding of medical treatment options for those of all ages, especially those with chronic and serious illness. Learn more at www.vccoalitionforcompassionatecare.org
The Coalition is recognized as a member of the Coalition for Compassionate Care of California and is found under local coalitions on their website www.coalitionccc.org.