

John Grant Helm Memorial Scholarship

John Helm was an invaluable member of the board of the CSCMP St. Louis Roundtable. His devotion and dedication to the success of this organization was paramount, and he would want everyone to follow his lead and live life to the fullest.

Sponsored by:
Rockfarm Supply Chain Solutions – St. Louis
Boeing Center for Supply Chain Innovation
UMSL Department of Supply Chain & Analytics

The $1,000 scholarship is awarded annually to a student focusing on a supply chain curriculum at a local university who exhibits leadership qualities, community engagement, and academic achievement. The award will be deposited directly into the student's account at $500 each semester. The CSCMP St. Louis Roundtable may elect to award $500 to a different student each semester.

ACADEMIC YEAR: FALL 2023 – SPRING 2024

Dear Student,

You are invited to participate in the application process for the John Grant Helm Memorial Scholarship. To apply, email your resume and statement of interest to your supply chain professor. Please ask your professor to forward these documents and a letter of recommendation to Dr. Stan Solomon at ssimons@siue.edu by June 1, 2023.

Your resume should include the following:

- Name, address, phone, email
- Degree / major expected, expected month / year of graduation, GPA / scale
- Demonstrated leadership principles
- Supply Chain coursework
- Employment experience, particularly supply chain
- Organizational affiliations, activities and positions held
- Scholarship / awards

Your statement of interest should address why you are a deserving recipient of this scholarship.

Thank you for your interest and participation,

Stan Solomon & Jill Bernard Bracy, Education Co-Chairs
