

What's Happening at GCPL

Happy New Year to everyone!! We are looking forward to a great 2017, as we have a lot going on here at the library.

Be sure to stop by the library in January and see our wonderful Arts & Crafts Exhibit. We put the word out for all talented Giles County people to bring in their arts and crafts to be on display in the library for the month of January, and they delivered! We have received around 89 pieces of art for this exhibit! We have some very talented people in our midst.

The Ramblin' Writers group meets here at the library monthly to write and critique each other's writing. They have been meeting since November of 2008, and the group has grown each year. The Ramblin' Writers are a group of very diverse people who come from many walks of life. They have now published their own book titled The Wonder of Words and it is a compilation of stories and writings from the people in the group. They are generously donating the proceeds from the sale of the books to the library. If you are interested in purchasing one for $10.00, we have them available.

James Gerlach will be here on January 17th at 5:30pm for an author event. He will talk about his book B-26 Marauders, England & WWII and will also have copies available for purchase.

Do you have something in your attic or something that has been passed down to you that you would like to know more about or learn about the history? We are having our first "What's in Your Attic" event on Saturday, February 4th, from 10:00 – 2:00. We have a great list of local experts who will be on hand to look at items brought in and be able to give information to you on your treasures. Be sure to put the date on your calendar and bring your items to the library!

The Quilt Show will be in March again this year. If you have a quilt to put on display for the month of March, make sure you bring it by after February 15th.

Our next tea will be an Irish Tea on Friday, March 24th. Please call the library to make your reservation.

Elizabeth has several special story times planned each Friday during the quarter. She does a great job with the pre-school kids story times. She usually has a theme each Friday and you can see the themes listed in this newsletter.

Harry Potter Trivia was a huge success, so we are going to have a follow up trivia event in March. Brush up on your Marvel characters and join us in March.

If you need help with preparing your resume, help with your smart phone, tablet, or laptop, you can make an appointment with a librarian to help you. Computer classes are also offered here. Be sure to check out the calendar for each month to get the dates.

The library has a ten question survey we would like you to take to help with our programming, services, etc. It is on our website, on Facebook, and paper copies are also available.

See the details of all the programs and special events offered for the coming months in this newsletter.

B-26 Marauders, England & WWII

“B-26 Marauders, England WWII” was written to pay homage to the author’s father, Allan E. Gerlach. Like many veterans, he would seldom talk about his life during his time in the Army Air Corps. It wasn’t until he passed away at the age of 94 that his old brown military bag was found to contain documents which included a beautifully hand-written diary that is the basis for this book.

The story begins with the early life of Allan E. Gerlach growing up in northern Minnesota, his training and assignments in World War II. He was part of the 9th Army, 322 Bomber Group of the 454 Squadron at Earls Colone Airfield, Essex County, England. From this air base in a period of one year, he flew seventy-one missions over the most heavily defended property in the world. This is his account of his experiences as a member of the B-26 Bomber crew and becoming a member of the “Marauders.”

What's In Your Attic?

We all have lots of “stuff” that has been passed down or found and it all usually has a story. What is it worth? Is it a sentimental keepsake or truly a treasure? Should we paint or refinish it? Sell or donate?

Here is your opportunity to meet with our panel of local experts to learn more about the treasures you own!*
