

August 27, 1946

The initial meeting of the Southern University Club, Chicago Branch, was held at the Parkway Community House, Tuesday August 27, 1946.

Tentative Objectives:

To perpetuate a close communication with the school.

To keep them informed of our activities and to acquaint ourselves with theirs.

To advertise our school in this locality in the form of various activities (teas, athletic, musicals, etc.)

To sponsor a scholarship for ^{one} eligible person to attend the University.

To sponsor some form of musical unit.

It was agreed that the meetings would be held semi-monthly on Monday evenings at 7:30 o'clock.
