

ELZINGA SPECIFICS—

PAMELA LANCASTER ELZINGA

LISTENING, SPEAKING, READING, & WRITING: Language Arts
Entirely different content than 2017's Language Arts

Time: 1st Period, 8:30-10 am

Students age 5-12

This class is designed to provide creative, engaging activities that will have your student falling in love with writing and literature! We will read novels in class. We will investigate those novels through drama, writing, poetry, and art. We will tackle some creative writing (using "brave writing" for our beginning writers!).

We will do group activities, play writing games, and read our work aloud. We will keep a journal, read some great short stories, and play lots of language-building games.

NOTE: ON THE 1ST DAY OF CLASS BRING:

- 2 sharpened pencils with good erasers
- Red pen, black pen, highlighter
- Book-TBA (I will supply a journal, as well as lots of reading and writing materials. Throughout the year, you will supply 1-3 inexpensive paperback novels for your student to read in class.)

About Pamela Elzinga's Classes

Please contact me with any questions you might have. I would love to hear your educational goals for your student and discuss how this class can help accomplish your goals. My goals are to introduce my courses in a colorful and interactive way – providing lots of opportunities to improve subject-related academic skills and to participate in group and presentation activities.
