The Friends Open House, Made in Lakeville and Make Your Own Gingerbread House Saturday, December 2nd

One of our favorite days of the year will be here before you know it. The Friends of the Library will be here to welcome you to the library with complimentary cider and cookies as you come to enjoy the annual Made in Lakeville holiday craft and gift sale, sponsored by the Lakeville Arts Council. A variety of arts and crafts, made by Lakeville residents, will be on display and for sale at both the Library and the Lakeville Senior Center. There will be live music and treats at both locations.

Make Your Own
Gingerbread House
Stop in the Children's Room anytime between 10 and 1 to create your own holiday masterpiece with graham crackers, frosting and a variety of treats!

We can't wait to kick-off the holiday season with you!

Antarctica & South Georgia

Tuesday, November 7th at 7:00

Join us for a narrated, visual and interactive presentation about Antarctica and South Georgia. Traveling aboard ice-class expedition ships,

Lakeville residents Kathrin Koedderitz and Mike Sylvia have explored the icy wonders of the Antarctic Peninsula and the Southern Ocean while working as Expedition Guides. Stroll through lively crowds of king penguins in stunning South Georgia and experience the ragged glaciers of Antarctica through their breathtaking photographs. Experience boundless wildlife and captivating beauty as we virtually venture into some of the planet's most unspoiled landscapes. Attendees will also get to enjoy some artifacts that have been brought back from their expeditions.

Mary Jo Maichack Traveling Cabaret Show Thursday, November 9th at 7:00

Ms. Maichack will be accompanied by Robert Shepard performing together a repertoire of Sinatra, Garland, Bennet and other great American singers. The hour will promise a Cabaret atmosphere with music, stories, song, and some dance. Their combined thirty years of experience as performers will create a Cabaret sure to entertain, enrich, and enliven. Her recordings can be found at her website.

Great Ponds Gallery

October 23rd – December 27th

“Home Here” by Maggie McEachern

During the months of November and December, the Great Ponds Gallery will feature the medium of oils by Carver native Margaret McEachern. Local artist Maggie McEachern creates narrative oil paintings that place the human form in nature. Growing up on the South Shore and spending time on the Cape, she aims to develop works that are reminiscent of summertime and the beach.
