

APRIL CHAPMAN

INDEPENDENT MEDIA PERSONALITY

ABOUT ME

April Chapman is a Christian Conservative, wife, homeschooling Mom, speaker, author, entrepreneur, independent media personality and an American Patriot. As host of the Standard of Truth Podcast on You Tube, she discusses all things social, cultural, political and theological from a biblical perspective. Originally from the Bronx, NY, April attended Spelman College, but after working in corporate america for a number of years in the Insurance and Financial services Industry, she and her husband Robert decided to grab their piece of the American dream by starting their own business. Together they own The Furniture Loft, a retail home furnishings store in Georgia featuring their own southern inspired furniture and home decor line called Farmhouse Signature Home.

April previously served as the Assistant State Director and Georgia state advisor for Blexit GA and was also active with the Black Voices for Trump Coalition. During the 2020 pandemic, April authored two books: The Respiratory Virus Protection Protocol and the Respiratory Virus Recovery Protocol, utilizing her years of holistic health and master herbalist expertise to help many safely and successfully recover from and protect themselves from the Covid-19 respiratory virus during a time when information and holistic therapeutics were actively suppressed and demonize due to censorship.

As a pro-life advocate, April has a personal mission to defend the lives of our most precious image bearers and she uses her voice to raise awareness and to speak out against womb assassination, also known as abortion. April was the 2022 recipient of the Douglas Leadership Institute's "Defender of Life," Family Life Campaign award for her pro-life advocacy and her fearless and bold commentary about abortion.

April is passionate about her faith and she spends most of her time disseminating a message of hope and truth on her video podcast platform, The Standard of Truth on You Tube. April currently resides outside of Atlanta in Rockdale County, GA with her husband Robert and their four beautiful children: Isaiah, Brandon and twins Hailey and Hannah.

The Podcast

@THESTANDARDOFTRUTHPODCAST

The Standard of Truth Podcast is a Christ centered video podcast dedicated to providing commentary on social, cultural, political, and theologically relevant topics from a biblical perspective. It's host, April Chapman, is a Christian wife, homeschooling Mom and Entrepreneur. April is distinctively complementarian in her theology and is an active and viable member of her local church. On the Standard of Truth Podcast, the bible is THE final authority and she serves the truth straight with no chaser.

VIEWS BY DEMOGRAPHIC

UNITED STATES

3,281,101

UNITED KINGDOM

59,467

CANADA

45,071

SOUTH AFRICA

30,775

JAMAICA

25,095

INDIA

21,176

TRINIDAD & TOBAGO

14,784

AUSTRALIA

7,222

BAHAMAS

11,288

BARBADOS

4,696

STATISTICS

3,761,683

total podcast views

488,003.4

Watch Time Hours

37K+

average monthly downloads

MY AUDIENCE

55.9% 44%

women

men