

Louisiana Summer Institute

Registration Now Open!

The annual Louisiana Summer Institute is a professional development program showcasing "We the People" which is an excellent civics curriculum to enhance your current civic education lessons. This year's expanded seven day program will feature six constitutional scholars from all over the country plus daily mentoring from experts in using the "We the People" program in the classroom. This is a fantastic opportunity for Louisiana educators.

Free Set of Textbooks for Elementary, Middle and High School

- Free Teacher's Guides
- Free Campus Housing and Dining on LSU Campus
- Free Parking
- Mileage Stipend

When: July 24-31, 2010

Where: LSU Law School, Baton Rouge, Louisiana

Registration: For details and application form click here.

Apply Now. Space is Limited!

Nominations Being Taken for Outstanding Civics Student
"Civics in Action Award"

Help the LCLCE recognize a Louisiana middle or high school student who exemplifies what it means to be an engaged citizen. Do you know a student who has made a difference or an improvement of the quality of life in their school, home, or community through the use of civic engagement?

April 2010

Louisiana Center for Law and Civic Education

The Louisiana Center for Law and Civic Education is a non profit 501(c)(3) organization. It is the educational arm of the Louisiana State Bar Association. It is financially assisted, in part, by the Interest on Lawyers Trust Accounts program through the Louisiana Bar Foundation, federal organizations, and by generous private contributions.

Louisiana Center for Law and Civic Education

601 St. Charles Avenue

The award recipient will be recognized at the Louisiana State Bar Association's Annual Meeting to be held in San Destin, Florida on June 11, 2010. Deadline for submission is May 7, 2010.

Nomination Information and Form

New Orleans, LA 70130

Phone (504) 619-0134

Fax (504) 528-9154

Lawyers in the Classroom Judges in the Classroom

A Partnership of the LCLCE, the Louisiana State Bar Association and the Louisiana District Judges Association

www.lalce.org

Teachers! Arrange an in-classroom presentation by legal professionals who have volunteered to work with students in your area.

If you would like a member of the legal community to visit your classroom, download and submit the educators enrollment form here. The LCLCE has on file a large list of topics that you can choose from.

For judges and lawyers interested in participating in the Lawyers in the Classroom/Judges in the Classroom programs, all you have to do is complete and submit the enrollment form. The LCLCE will attempt to match your needs with one of the classrooms in your area. Once a match is found, the LCLCE will contact you.

Louisiana Legislative Youth Advisory Council Now Accepting Applications

High school students who have an interest in representing the voices of other young people around the state may apply. State lawmakers created the Legislative Youth Advisory Council in state law during the 2007 Regular Session. It's purpose is to facilitate the communication between youth and the legislature and to give students a unique opportunity to be involved in the workings of state government. The deadline for applications is April 15, 2010. Online application is available here.

Attorney Job Openings

The Louisiana State Bar Association has a current listing of job opportunities in the legal field. To view these opportunities click here.