The Security Services Leader

Security Patrols

Whether you own a popular venue, are planning an event, or are looking to safeguard your facility, our security patrol services are a great way to get the peace of mind you're after.

As an established security service, we offer a wide range of services for clients who believe in putting safety first.

The Protection You Need

Our security personnel are trained professionals who are committed to offering thorough, vigilant service. Whether you need our services on a one-time or ongoing basis, you can count on us for:

- Affordable service
- Hassle-free scheduling
- Nightly Patrol, ensuring doors are locked
- Securing your location and deterring vandalism

Don't settle for an average security service.

Call the professionals at Tri-State Security and Patrol Services today for more information about our security patrol services or to discuss your specific needs.
