President's Message

Happy Tax Day!

I hope you are all much less stressed than I am about taxes! Every year I plan to get them done early, and every year I end up sending an extension form at the last minute!

But on to more appealing musical subjects! Certificate of Merit weekend was a great success last month. I hope all the CM teachers have had a chance to take a bit of a break to recover and start planning for next year. A few people have not yet picked up their students; results; they are still sitting on my front porch for easy access at any time. Stop by 3476 Fanwood Ave, Long Beach 90808.

Our Branch Honors Recital last Saturday featured students who excelled at CM, earning Good or Excellent ratings on all sections of the evaluation and 80% or greater on the theory test. We had a full day with four recitals. The presentation of Senior Medallions to seniors who have passed CM in at least three of their high school years (including the senior year) and who have reached at least Level 7 in CM was a highlight of the day. Congratulations to those seniors and their teachers!

I hope to see many of you at our meeting this Sunday with a presentation on vocal pedagogy. Even if you don't teach voice, you will benefit from the discussion. Be sure to send in any questions you'd like to have answered by the presenter to VP Marc Lombardino before the program.

The third Branch Recital is coming up on May 5! Do enter some of your students (and even yourself!) to perform at Newcomb Academy. Remind your students that the more they play in front of others, the more comfortable it becomes. The registration form is now available at www.mtacb.com.

We are coming to the end of this school year, and our Nominating Committee has been hard at work compiling a slate of prospective officers for next year. You can see that list in this newsletter; voting will take place at the annual business meeting on May 9 at the home of Sarah Sandvig. Hope to see you all there!

Since many of you will be having spring recitals, let me remind you to send copies of your programs to our ASCAP chair Jennifer Watts. She collects programs throughout the year and sends them to State Headquarters, so that composers can be compensated for performances of their works. I'm sure you all would like to support our composers, so do make the effort to send those programs in!

Our Branch offers many opportunities for student performance and for teacher enrichment. The more you participate the more value you receive from your membership. I encourage you to attend the meetings yourself and to encourage your students to participate in our recitals, festivals, and contests.

Musically Yours,

Laura Dickey, President

Learn strategies for students with:

Autism

Visual/Aural Impairments

Behavior Problems

Physical Disabilities

Higher Learning Potential

Pre-presentation activity: Click on the link below and ask yourself this question: Does this child appear to have a disability?

Discussion: Visible vs Invisible disabilities - that is where we see the challenges as a teacher and/or parent as a teacher we may not get the full scoop from the family - though we can create the space for them to let us know about their child and discuss strategies in studio to allow for that.
