

Baby's Translucent

My baby's translucent
Can't you see?
My baby's translucent
Can't you see?

People say, "Where's your baby?"
I say, "She's right by my side"
Then say the don't see nothing
They ask if she's trying to hide

My baby's translucent
Can't you see?
My baby's translucent
Can't you see?

I say to people, "Ain't she pretty?"
They say, "Yeah, she's just swell"
But they're really lying
'Cause I can tell

I can't even see my baby at all
But Baby told me, said she's sexy and tall
Her complexion's not her greatest feature
What she looks like?
I'm not even really sure

Because she's -
Translucent
Can't you see?
My baby's translucent
Can't you see?

People say, "Tell us what your baby looks like"
I tell them, "I can't"
They say, "How come, man?"
I say, "'Cause my baby, she's - translucent"

My baby's translucent
Can't you see?
My baby's translucent
Can't you see?

How can it be?
Baby's translucent
I can't even see
My baby she's -
Translucent
