

Mary L. Colville, 84
Sauk Rapids, MN
Sept. 2, 1932 - Jan. 21, 2017

A gathering will be held from 3-6 p.m. Monday, Jan. 30, 2017, at Williams Dingmann Family Funeral Home, Sauk Rapids, for Mary L. Colville, age 84, who passed away peacefully at her residence in Rice. Burial will take place at Fort Snelling National Cemetery on Tuesday, Jan. 31 at 1:05 p.m.

Mary was born Sept. 2, 1932, in Ottuma, Iowa to Alva and Jewel (Loving) Savidge. Growing up in Iowa, she attended Iowa State where she met the love of her life, Lloyd H. Colville. She married Lloyd Jan. 12, 1951, in Agency, Iowa. Mary raised their six wonderful kids and is described as the glue that held the family together. She later went on to be a tax preparer and owned Southwest Tax Services for many years. Mary loved to spend time with family and friends, canning, entertaining, going to the casino and watching western movies particularly John Wayne. She lived in many states and her fondest was Colorado, the other was on the Horseshoe chain of lakes in Richmond, where she made and kept many life-long friends. Mary is described as always being full of life, smart and witty, and most of all very loved by her family.

Mary is survived by her husband, Lloyd of Rice; children, Cathy Gary of Helendale, Calif., Connie (Larry) Kane Basgal of Little Falls, Cindy (Dan) Sjolseth of Burnsville, Sandy Peters of St. Cloud, Linda (David) Marshall of Rice, Patrick (Courtney Johnson) Colville of St. Cloud; brother, Robert Savidge of Mount Holly, N.J.; three nephews and one niece; 12 grandchildren; and 12 great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents and grandparents.

Family would like to thank Heartland Hospice for their wonder care and an extended thank you to Sandy Witz and Pamela Nicole.
