Stewardship Reflection

"There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone."

1 CORINTHIANS 12:4-6

All of us are blessed, regardless of our own individual circumstances; God has given each of us many gifts. How we use those gifts is our gift back to God. For God's plan to work, each must do what we are called to do and guess what – we are not all called to do the same thing!

• CONDOLENCES

We express our condolences to the families of Gladys Gorecki and Paul Senske. May Gladys and Paul live on in God's eternal love.

• PENTECOST

This great feast celebrates the descent of the Holy Spirit on the apostles 50 days after Easter. It is sometimes called "the birthday of the church" because after the Holy Spirit filled their hearts they went forth to announce the message of Christ to the whole world.

This solemnity concludes the wonderful Easter Season in which we have been celebrating the wonderful news of Christ's resurrection.

Thanks to all who contributed to our liturgical celebrations through the gifts of their time and talent.

• GRADUATES

Graduation is one of the highlights of a person's life. It is a sign of accomplishment and dedication to complete the journey. We congratulate all of our graduates and wish them blessings and joy in the next part of their journey.

• BIBLE STUDY

We will resume our bible study on Monday, June 4 at 6:30 p.m.

• DEACON ADAM MAHER'S PRIESTLY ORDINATION

Deacon Adam will be ordained to the priesthood on Friday, June 1 at 2:30 p.m. at the Cathedral of Mary of the Assumption in Saginaw. You are welcome to attend.

• CATHOLIC SCHOOL OPPORTUNITY

If you would like a Catholic school opportunity for you child or children, I can recommend St. Michael's School in Pinconning. You may call 989-879-3063 for information.

• CATHOLIC SERVICES APPEAL (CSA)

Prayer Network Intentions

Improved Health: Gary Taylor, Ashley Taylor and Rod Maser.

Successful Surgery and Recovery: Ron VanHorn.
Please keep these intentions in your prayers.

Catch Fire!

Catch the spirit! Celebrate the spirit! We've got spirit! Schools, businesses, yes, even churches set aside time to fire up people so that they will perform better, respond faster, show more excitement about what they are doing. An entire industry has built itself up around building and promoting people's spirits. Schools hold spirit weeks before important sporting events or to break down the boredom of midwinter and help students focus on positive activities. Ideally, the efforts are supposed to be long-lasting. Supposedly more work will be accomplished more quickly with a better attitude.

The Spirit we celebrate at Pentecost is more than just a pragmatic attitude. It is the fulfillment of all that God promised to us 50 days ago on Easter. For these past weeks we have been preparing ourselves to live the kind of lives that will make God's loving presence known and felt to all with whom we come into contact. The Spirit is given to us if we share the Spirit's love with others. Great things do happen. Peter, remember, had denied Jesus, but now speaks so eloquently that all who hear him have the fire burn in their hearts.

Thank You

I would like to Express my sincere gratitude to Fr. Dave and our parish family for the prayers, visits and support shown to me during my recovery from a heart attack. The caring professionals at Standish St. Mary's are the absolute best and I am forever in their debt for the renewed gift of life.

I will be spending a few weeks recouping but I look forward to being back among my faith family and friends very soon.

Thank you again for the powerful prayers and love shown to both myself and my family!
God bless!

Gary Taylor

The Sunday Gospel in Everyday English

Later on that day, the disciples had gathered together, but, fearful of the Jews, had locked all the doors in the house. Jesus entered, stood among them, and said, "Peace to you." Then he showed them his hands and side.

The disciples, seeing the Master with their own eyes, were exuberant. Jesus repeated his greeting: "Peace to you. Just as the Father sent me, I send you."

Then he took a deep breath and breathed into them. "Receive the Holy Spirit," he said. "If you forgive someone's sins, they're gone for good. If you don't forgive sins, what are you going to do with them?" (from John 20).
