

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH OF ROSE M. STUART

Rose M. Stuart, along with her husband Donald, are the Founders and Pastors of New Covenant Christian Fellowship, a Multi-Cultural, Non-Denominational Church located in Albany, NY. Pastor Rose, as she is affectionately known to her congregation, is committed to preaching the whole Word of God by precept, and example.

She is a visionary filled with the Holy Spirit and has dedicated her life to serving God while fulfilling her calling in Kingdom ministry. As a woman of astronomical faith, she has established several community outreach ministries including Nehemiah 21st Century Housing Ministries, Shepherd's Purse Association for Children, Awake and Arise Christian Women's Ministry and her latest ministry "Lifeway Ministries", all designed to uplift the glory of God and address a plethora of socioeconomic issues.

Often referred to as the Harriet Tubman of today, Pastor Rose continues to lead people of all nationalities to an emancipated and abundant life. She is a powerful motivational speaker who speaks with the authority of God offering freedom and deliverance in Christ. Although she is continuously sought after to address churches nationwide; Pastor Rose remains humble and is respected as a leader among leaders, striving to help other leaders attain the vision that God has imparted to their ministry in any way she can.

Pastor Rose has received many awards and recognition for her noteworthy commitment to serving the public and God's people including the NAACP Woman of Distinction award; recognition from the NYS Senate; Feed the Children International; Zeta Phi Beta Sorority Inc., Omicron Epsilon Zeta Chapter Award of Finer Womanhood; New York State Governors (Harriet Tubman Spirit) Award's & the Black Women's Association of Albany Award and the Pioneer Pastors' Awards. She has received "Keys" to the cities of: Timmons ville, SC; Jonestown, MS; Friars Point, MS and recognition from the County Social Service of Quitman, MS.

Pastor Rose is the author of "Marriage Counseling by The Book," with many other essays, plays, short stories, and poems to her credit. Pastor Rose reverently fears God and is determined to do the work of the ministry with a spirit of excellence. She is graced by God to serve in the five-fold ministry. She is known for her bold love and compassion to those in need. She is also known as the Godly woman with an iron fist dressed in a velvet glove. She throws a heavy punch, when it comes to fighting for lost souls and hurting children.
