

OREGON

Oregon Revised Statutes, 1953, chapter 272, sections--

272.020 Conveyance of site to United States for aid to navigation; jurisdiction.--Whenever the United States desires to acquire title to land belonging to the state, and covered by the navigable waters of the United States, within the limits hereof, for the site of lighthouse, beacon or other aid to navigation, and application is made by a duly authorized agent of the United States, describing the site required for one of such purposes, the Governor may convey the title to the United States, and cede to the United States jurisdiction over the same; provided, no single tract shall contain more than 10 acres. The State of Oregon shall retain concurrent jurisdiction, so far that all process, civil or criminal, issuing under the authority of the state, may be executed by the proper officers thereof upon any person amenable to the same within the limits of land so ceded, in like manner and to like effect as if this section had never been passed.

272.030 Acquisition of land for Federal buildings; jurisdiction.--

Consent hereby is given to the United States to purchase or otherwise acquire any lands within the State of Oregon for the purpose of
