

Date: Sunday Sept. 23, 2018 RSVP by Sept. 16 to John Boggess:
Email John at john.boggess@comcast.net or call 724-331-6106

Time: 2 PM – 5 PM. We plan to eat at 3 PM.

Hosted by: Jack and Eileen Gilbert - see directions below. We'll tour a beautiful wildflower planting and enjoy seeing their alpacas, as well as learning about the various uses for alpaca fleece.

Provided: Pulled pork, fresh corn on the cob, rolls, condiments, tableware, napkins, and bottled water

What to bring: covered dish, optional lawn chair – there is a pavilion with picnic tables, as well as electric outlets so you can plug in electrical appliances.

Let John know:

- 1. How many plan to attend
- 2. How many ears of corn you plan to eat
- 3. What covered dish or dessert you will bring

Directions: From the EAST:

At the light in Schellsburg, continue West on Rt. 30. Look for Rose Road in 1.8 miles. Make a right onto Rose Road. Follow Rose Road for about a mile. Make a right onto Hoover Road. Make the first left onto Winegardner Road (at the white Allegheny Mennonite Church) and go about a mile to the round house on the right. You will be climbing up the mountain.

To get to the picnic pavilion: continue on Winegardner Road past the house and driveway several hundred feet to the row of trees. Make a right just before the row of trees. We will have it marked WOSA. Follow this grassy road down and below the lower alpaca pasture and you will see the pavilion.

From the West (Somerset County):

Turn before you get to Schellsburg, making a Left onto Rose Road. Follow Rose Road for about a mile. Make a right onto Hoover Road. Make the first left onto Winegardner Road (at the white Allegheny Mennonite Church) and go about a mile to the round house on the right. You will be climbing up the mountain. To get to the picnic pavilion, follow directions above.
