

Clare Mitchell

Clare is constantly trying to expand the experiences of the people she works with. Clare's positive attitude has led her to be able to get individuals to try things they otherwise would not have tried. Clare continually looks for events going on in the community to attempt to engage those she works with deeper into being members of their community. Clare has exhibited that she is willing helper and does not hesitate to step-up when she is called on for extra tasks.