1. Upon the transfer of the Transferred BPA to Transferee and notice to the Watermaster pursuant to the Judgment:

A. The BPA retained for the benefit of the Restricted Property (i.e., not transferred to Transferee for the benefit of the Benefited Property) is ____ acre-feet per year (“Remaining BPA”). “Pumping” of “Groundwater”, as defined in the Judgment, from the Restricted Property is limited to the Remaining BPA. “Pumping” of “Groundwater”, as defined in the Judgment, from the Restricted Property in excess of the Remaining BPA is prohibited unless an allocation of water is subsequently acquired for the benefit of the Restricted Property by way of lease or permanent transfer of Groundwater allocation approved in accordance with the terms of the Judgment. Except as specifically allowed in this Section 1(A), or under a duly approved lease or permanent transfer of water allocation approved in accordance with the Judgment, the following uses are expressly prohibited on the Restricted Property:

B. Transferee will be the owner of the Transferred BPA assigned to the Benefited Property.

2. This Restrictive Covenant is for the benefit of Transferee, its successors and assigns, and of the real property legally described on Exhibit “C” and depicted on Exhibit “D”, attached hereto and incorporated by this reference (the “Benefited Property”). The wells that will be used to Pump the Transferred BPA are identified as [ENTER STATE WELL NUMBERS], which wells may be replaced from time to time with notice the Watermaster. This Restrictive Covenant may be enforced only in accordance with Section VII.A(1) of the Judgment by Transferee, its successors and assigns, by any Party to the Judgment having or acquiring any right, title or interest in the Transferred BPA or in the Benefited Property, by the Watermaster appointed under the Judgment (the “Watermaster”), or by the Court maintaining continuing jurisdiction over the Judgment upon a motion of any party to the Judgment. Transferee, its successors and assigns, may assign any of its rights and powers under this Restrictive Covenant to any Party to the Judgment having or acquiring any right, title or interest in the Transferred BPA or in the Benefited Property. Upon the recordation of such assignment in the Official Records of the Office of the County Recorder, County of San Diego (“Official Records”), such assignee, to the extent of such assignment, shall have the same rights and powers as are given to Transferee herein and under the deed to be recorded for conveyance of the BPA.

4. This Restrictive Covenant may not be modified, terminated or rescinded, in whole or in part, except by a written instrument duly executed and acknowledged by the Transferee with the approval of the Watermaster, and recorded in the Official Records.

5. This Restrictive Covenant shall become effective upon its recordation in the Official Records. Within thirty (30) days of the date of recordation, Transferee shall provide written notice to the Watermaster of such recordation and the transfer of the Transferred BPA to the Benefited Property.

7. In the event that any portion of this Restrictive Covenant shall become illegal, null or void or against public policy, for any reason, or shall be held by any court of competent jurisdiction to be illegal, null or void or against public policy, the remaining portions of this Restrictive Covenant shall not be affected thereby and shall remain in force and effect to the full extent permissible by law.

8. This Restrictive Covenant shall be given a fair and reasonable construction in accordance with the intentions of the parties and without regard for or aid from any canons requiring construction against the party drawing this Restrictive Covenant.

9. The breach of any covenants, conditions or restrictions herein contained shall not defeat, invalidate nor impair the obligation or priority of any mortgage or deed of trust now or hereafter executed and constituting a lien upon the Restricted Property or any portion thereof, which is made in good faith and for value; provided, however, that any party, including the holder of the mortgage or deed of trust, who acquires title through private or judicial foreclosure, trustee's sale or deed in lieu of foreclosure (a "Foreclosure-Purchaser") and all successors and assigns of such Foreclosure-Purchaser shall take title subject to all of the covenants, conditions and restrictions contained in this Restrictive Covenant.
