*CIF Transfer Information

Any first time transfer student (valid change of residence (206.C) is not considered a transfer) is subject to the Sit Out Period (first transfer only; date differs per sport (207.B(5)) unless:

*Student/ school is only requesting to compete Frosh or JV for the entire season (Limited Eligibility - 207.B(5)a)

*Student has not participated in a sport in the previous 12 months at the former school (Non-Participation -

207.B(5)c) *Student qualifies for a Hardship (207.B(5)c(vii)) - supporting documentation is required

1. Divorce in the family
2. Court-ordered Transfer
3. Documented School Safety Issue
4. Foster/ Homeless Children

Note:

- The sit out period is not an option for any student transferring for a second time. A second time transfer student (used sit out period already) is ineligible for one (1) calendar year from the date of transfer in any sport they have participated in, at any level, in the past 12 months at the former school.
- Transfers due to disciplinary issues at the previous school will be ineligible in all sports for one calendar year from the date of transfer.
