

Good morning! Happy Groundhog Day!

Take a look at the clip here for today. Not going to say much about it today.....what do you have?!

Great pump fake by the shooter.....the defender leaves the floor.....did the defender go straight up.....what did the defender do wrong?

We don't see as many pump fakes as we used to but the players who use it do so effectively. Thoughts on this play?! Great discussion clip!

Have a great game tonight!
