May 21, 2017
Sixth Sunday of Easter
John 14:15-21

“Whoever has my commandments and observes them is the one who loves me.”

Jesus knew that after he ascended to heaven many would attempt to complicate his existence, mission, and message. He was aware that from the time of Moses, people tried to avoid or deny the nature of God and his simple command to love God and to love each other as we love ourselves. He knew that if we could be convinced that love of God and others is complicated, we would get discouraged and give up. He anticipated that some would claim to have superior and exclusive knowledge of how to love God in order to gain control over the mind and lives of others. Jesus assured us that loving God by understanding and observing his commandments, and loving others, is not complicated, but it can be difficult. It requires that we do right, not just look right; do good, not just feel good. It means we must eliminate evil in our lives and challenge the evil in our world, our community, our work place, our home. That can be inconvenient, unpleasant, and risky. And that takes love.

Listening Session with Bishop Medley

The Church is listening - and wants to hear from you. In 2018, the 15th Ordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops will be held, featuring the theme: "Youth, faith and vocational discernment." The goal of the synod is to help young people on their journey into adulthood and to discern the plan that God has for their lives. Pope Francis has asked bishops around the world to gather input on this topic from the faithful in their diocese. Please join Bishop Medley on Thursday, June 1, 2017 at 6:00 PM at St. Francis de Sales, Paducah for an upcoming listening session, and add your voice to the discussion on youth and young adults in our local church today and your hopes for the future. The information gathered at the listening sessions will be compiled and submitted to Rome for consideration at the 2018 Synod. This is a unique opportunity to tell Bishop Medley - and ultimately Pope Francis - what you think the Church is doing well and what it could do better. These general sessions are open to youth, young adults and adults. Your input may also be given online by completing the survey at: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/VM28TY7>
