Ps 111:2 The works of the LORD are great, sought out of all them that have pleasure therein.

- Great in number – works of thy hands

Ps 8:3 When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained;

If you tabulate all stars visible down to magnitude 6.5, thought to be the faintest stars still visible to the unaided eye, the entire sky contains some 9,000 stars. Since you can only see half the sky at any time, which means there are as many as 4,500 stars visible in your sky tonight.

Ps 147:4 He telleth the number of the stars; he calleth them all by their names.

Using the Milky Way as our model, we can multiply the number of stars in a typical galaxy (100 billion) by the number of galaxies in the universe (2 trillion). The answer is an absolutely astounding number. There are approximately 200 billion trillion stars in the universe. So they say – if true and very well could be...

- Great in wonder

Creation – Think of all the variety; the fish, birds, land animals, man and the complexity of it all. Truly there is a God of infinite power and wisdom.

Ps 111:9 He sent redemption unto his people: ...

- Great in compassion – Redemptive Acts

Ex 6:6 Wherefore say unto the children of Israel, I am the LORD, and I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, and I will rid you out of their bondage, and I will redeem you with a stretched out arm, and with great judgments:

And at Calvary Jesus with outstretched arms shed His blood for our redemption.

Col 1:14 In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins:

- Ps.111:2b Sought out of all them that have pleasure therein.

Men marvel at the works of painters, architects and engineers. How interested are you in the works of God? Who can paint a sunset like the LORD or how 'bout the painted desert of Arizona? Who can make tree limb to support a tremendous amount of weight and anchored only on one side?

Who can take the dust of the earth and form man and breathe life into it? One of his greatest works is the Holy Bible. It is a revelation of many of His works.

- Isa 34:16 Seek ye out of the book of the LORD, and read:
