

Attention Nicholas County Nonprofits!!!

Free Grant Writing Training

August 22-23, 2019
9am to 4pm
Lunch Included

The Nicholas County Community Foundation and West Virginia Nonprofit Association invite nonprofit organizations who serve Nicholas County to join us for a free, 2-day, interactive, and collaborative grant writing training. Bring your staff, board members, and volunteers!

Alice Ruhnke, Founder and Owner of The Grant Advantage will offer her expertise to help us learn:

- How to find grants that meet your mission and vision from federal, state, and foundation sources
- How to put a grant together using a Program Planning Framework that ties your application together to tell a compelling story
- Understand what it is that funders are really looking for

All participants will receive a free copy of "Mapping the Course: A Practical Approach to Grant Writing" for future reference.

Location: Summersville Arena and Conference Center
3 Armory Way
Summersville, West Virginia

You must register to secure your spot.
To register, contact the Nicholas County Community Foundation at nccfvv@gmail.com or 304.872.0202

Thanks to a grant from USDA's Rural Communities Development Initiative, awarded to Philanthropy WV and the WVNPA, the Nicholas County Community Foundation has resources to strengthen nonprofits serving Nicholas County.
