THE AMANA COLONIES ARE EXPLODING WITH FLOWERS ON JULY 30TH.

Gardeners of Amana will show off their work at the 2nd annual "Colonies in Bloom" on July 30th. Anyone with a green thumb will love this opportunity to view 18 private gardens that will be open to the public.

One of the gardens that will be open to the public was recently featured in the May/June 2016 issue of Midwest Living. The gardeners will be present at each home to answer questions. This is a FREE event.

Maps of the "Colonies in Bloom" homes are available at the Amana Visitor Center and select businesses in the Amana Colonies.

For more information about Colonies in Bloom, or any other upcoming events, visit www.amana-colonies.com or call 319-622-7622

FOURTH OF JULY THANK YOU

Thank you to all those who helped make Fourth of July possible! There are so many people within our community who do their part and more to make our Fourth of July a fun-filled, family event. We are thanking those listed below and apologize for anyone we missed. Many hidden helpers do a lot of work so even if you are not named here "Thank You"!

Fireworks crew-Chris Herr, Chris Dunn, Lynn Trumpold, William Trumpold, Jerry Stimmel, Paul Novak, Mick Scheetz, Bill Yoder, Gerald Reiskamp, Justin Steiff, Lucas Miller, DJ and Travis Sheeley and all the rest for setting up, shooting, keeping us safe and cleaning up!

Fish guys-Lynn Trumpold, Chris Herr, Alex Mo-many, Caleb, Adam and Eric Reihman, Nick Kleinmeyer, Andrew Kleinmeyer, Don Vobeda, and many other great fishermen who spend 'thankless hours' with a line in the water and a drink in their hands!

To the Grillmasters-'Digger' Alan Neibus and Ingrid Schulte who work tirelessly in the hot sun so that we can eat!

To William Jasper for the fantastic BBQ pork!! The Baseball organizers-Lanny Haldy and Jon Childers. Come early next year – the event seating fills up fast!

The Kubb crew-Ron Heitman and Louie Caspers. For teaching being willing to teach people who can't even throw a ball how to throw wooden squares.

The Board gamers-Will Zuber and Spencer Beltz. For teaching at least one old lady a few new tricks.

The Kitchen crew-Carmen Grimm, Kristie Yoder, Terry Roemig, Susan Hollrah, Kristin Schulte, Erin Schulte, Dixie Trout, Dennis Gormley, Andrea Haldy, Mary Zuber, Susan Shoup, Marcia Graesser and Jane Kraus and Tom Gross, the quiet ones behind the scenes who sample the deserts and make sure they are ready to serve! A special thanks to Dixie and Dennis for the exemplary clean-up work.

The Bingo Lady-Terry Roemig for finding fun prizes every year and calling the game!

The breakfast gang-Amana Church youth group, leaders and cooks led by Penni Berger who do more before 8 am than most of us do all day! And Jon Childers for an inspiring church service.

The Fireworks and Fish guys would like to give a special thanks to Ginger Myers and the Kleinmeyer brothers for the great ribs!!!

A very special thanks to Jeff Popenhagen for making sure the refrigerated trailer was available and Jon Childers for getting the park ready and cleaning up. To the Amana Meat Shop crew for getting all the brats, hot dogs and buns together for us. Thank you to Lois Lukes for always bringing the best Cheesy Potatoes this side of the planet.

And to Dr. Tim, the guy who does the fundraising!

AMANA FESTIVAL OF THE ARTS

The Amana Arts Guild will sponsor its Festival of the Arts on Saturday August 6, 10 AM – 5 PM at the Middle Amana Park in Middle Amana, Iowa.

This special event will feature sales of fine arts, crafts and traditional Colony folk arts by local and guest artists. A unique part of the festival will be demonstrations as visitors will enjoy observing: woodturning, quilting, tinsmithing, basket-making, spinning and painting.

Guests will also enjoy local foods such as Amana bratwurst, kraut, homemade apple fritters and baked goods along with a special homemade rhubarb drink.

Entertainment throughout the day by Ursula and Friends!

Also a children's art corner and an Amana Colony Quilt raffle.
