JACK'S CORNER

“THE MOST SIGNIFICANT MEMORIAL”

Tomorrow Americans will observe a holiday referred to as, “Memorial Day.” This holiday was put into place after the Civil War to remember the many soldiers who gave their lives for their country.

We continue to observe this holiday to remember all who gave their lives in the various wars that have brought death and destruction. Some will remember it with great sadness. Others will remember it with thankfulness that we continue to enjoy our freedoms.

Most look forward to this holiday because it provides a three-day weekend off from their jobs. It is a time for short trips, camping, golfing, fishing, etc. Some even participate in organized memorial tribute ceremonies. There is certainly nothing wrong with these activities that we share with family and friends.

But what is disturbing is that many will observe this holiday and fail to remember the Lord's Day. As commendable as Memorial Day is, and the men and women who died for our country, there is no more significant day as the Lord's Day. We should never, intentionally, fail to come together with the saints to worship our God. We should never forget that He gave His only Son for a people so undeserving. We do a great disservice to our Lord when we fail to gather with the church to remember that God gave up His Son to a cruel world of humanity. We fail to respect Jesus, who willingly suffered on our behalf, when we forsake the assembling and do not memorialize that suffering.

There is no doubt, we should respectfully give tribute to those who have fallen for the freedoms of our country, but the impact of what God and Christ gave for our spiritual freedom has eternal significance that is beyond compare.

“Greater love has no man than this, that He lay down His life for His friends” (Jn. 15:13). The early Christians met every first day of the week to remember the laying down of this life (Acts 20:7).
