Biography

Joan Lois Libka, 89, of Pigeon, passed away Wednesday, June 24, 2020 at home under hospice care. Joan was born February 5, 1931 in Caseville, the third of five children to the late Nobel and Alice (Duguid) Frank. She graduated from Pigeon High School in 1948 and then went from "Panther to Chippewa," when she attended Central Michigan University. She married Neil Libka on September 10, 1949 at the former First Methodist Church in Pigeon; he preceded her in death on October 14, 1996. Her greatest joys were her home and family. She enjoyed traveling to Hawaii, Europe, and the Bahamas, fishing, knitting, working jigsaw and crossword puzzles, cooking and gardening. Joan was totally invested in the lives of her six children, and also volunteered as a Cub Scout den mother, member of the VFW Auxiliary, Thumb and Pigeon Bowling League Secretary, and the Laker High Band Parent's Association. She was a 70 year member of St. John's Ev. Lutheran Church-Berne where she was active in the adult Bible class, having read the entire Bible annually.
