Columbia Housing Authority Addresses Reporters Detainment

Columbia, SC (January 29, 2019) – We, at the Columbia Housing Authority, apologize for the unfortunate incident that occurred earlier today with WLTX reporters, Jenna Kurzyna and Susan Ardis.

Government and Public Affairs liaison, Diane Sumpter, will be meeting with all security personnel, both the Columbia Housing Authority's and private industry, later today. Procedures are being put in place immediately to ensure that this does not happen again.

We ask the media and the public to remember that moving is a very stressful situation. And, this has been a challenging time for all of the residents involved. We ask for your continued patience and consideration as we work to permanently house over 400 residents.
