Local Educator Gina Maroszek Selected as 2016 Master Educator for Elementary Education

The faculty at Concordia University Wisconsin has awarded the 2016 Master Educator Award for Elementary Education to Mrs. Gina Maroszek, teacher at Trinity Lutheran School, Wausau, WI. Gina will be presented this distinction at fall commencement on December 17 at 1:30pm in the R. John Buuck Field House at Concordia University Wisconsin. Immediate family will be invited to the President's Luncheon on campus that day. The award includes a $1,000 gift to Gina and to Trinity Lutheran School.

Gina is a graduate of Concordia University Wisconsin and holds a Master's degree from UW-Stevens Point with an emphasis in reading. She has taught for 31 years, all at Trinity and mostly second grade. She has served in multiple leadership roles throughout her ministry, including interim principal, Title 1 teacher, school testing facilitator, Forward Exam coordinator, teacher assistant supervisor and alumni ministry representative.
