~ Learn from Experience ~

Susanne M. Jensen, Ph.D., C.G.P., F.A.G.P.A.

Dr. Jensen received her doctoral degree in clinical psychology at the University of Bonn, Germany. She has lectured in local, national and international organizations in which she has been a member and/or held offices. She co-founded and is a former Clinical Director of the Student Mental Health Service at LSU. There she facilitated the transformation of that service into a mecca of psychotherapy, healing, training, and professional growth. Her vision and leadership continue to reverberate throughout the psychotherapy community. Her sub-specialties are the Psychological Development of Women and Group Psychotherapy. Dr. Jensen is in full-time private practice in Baton Rouge.

Workshop Objectives

1. Learn to evaluate your own style as a group therapist.
2. Distinguish between theoretical orientation, technique, style.
3. Analyze the style of leaders in group development.
4. Discuss your own style as it relates to Personality Adaptation, training, and experience.
