

Disclaimer Regarding the Lutheran Orthodox Church

The Lutheran Orthodox Church is not affiliated with nor in Communion with the Evangelical Protestant Church GCEPC LEPC. A Petition for Injunction NO.3102 Civil 2010 has been filed against Sam Guido, Sam Guido Ministries International and the Lutheran Orthodox Church in the Court of Monroe County, Pennsylvania.

The Monroe County Court has stated that it cannot hear our Petition for Injunction because the Court lacked "subject matter jurisdiction" in the case because it was an "ecclesiastical" matter which the Courts are not allowed to hear; therefore, no hearing was held. We disagreed with the Court that it could not hear our Petition for Injunction. The Petition for Injunction is in regard to a civil matter regarding our non-profit corporation. A non-profit corporation is a civil entity recorded by requirement of the Secretary of State. This is not a church issue. The Secretary of State required the Petition to be filed for Injunction to protect our interest. We filed an Appeal to the Court not hearing our Petition.
