All new students to New Life Christian Academy will be enrolled on a nine (9) week probationary basis. This applies to both academics and behavior.

Diagnostic Testing will be administered to all new students entering 1st grade and above, and grade placement will be determined based on the testing results.

All new students entering 6th grade and above will be required to schedule a family interview with a member of New Life Christian Academy's administrative board. New Life Christian Academy reserves the right to deny admission based on any negative results from this interview or from information disclosed on the enrollment application.
