South Charleston Christian Academy, a ministry of Capitol City Baptist Church, strives to follow God's Word as in Exodus 18:20, "And thou shalt teach them ordinances and laws, and shalt shew them the way wherein they must walk, and the work that they must do." Everyday our teachers and staff, with God's help, make Godly teaching and training a priority. In addition to striving to provide a Christian environment, high importance is placed on academics, personal character, and structure. The importance of God's Word is woven into every classroom.

South Charleston Christian Academy (SCCA) is properly and legally registered as an "Exemption K" school and is in compliance with the West Virginia State Department of Education and Kanawha County Schools. The school buildings are in full compliance with all city, county, and state level agencies.

South Charleston Christian Academy's traditional classrooms are teacher taught using the well-known ABEKA curriculum. SCCA continues to work hard to offer affordable tuition and options for families with more than one child. Please visit our website at scca.biz to download an informational packet or contact the school office at 304-720-6156.

The saying is, "More is caught than taught!" Our goal is to honor the Lord with our living and our teaching. The teachers and staff at SCCA want to partner with parents and families to honor the Lord to give young people not only a great education, but a well-balanced life.
