

Outstanding Leadership Award

Virginia Network for Women in Higher Education

The Virginia Network for Women in Higher Education Outstanding Leadership Award will recognize an outstanding woman leader who has made significant contributions to higher education in Virginia. By recognizing outstanding women in Virginia higher education, we create an environment that supports the development and promotion of women leaders.

Criteria

The award winner shall have:

- Exemplified leadership, success and service; and,
- Served as a role model and leader to other women in the field of higher education through her demonstrated commitment to their leadership development; and,
- Employment in, or retired from, a Virginia institution of higher education.

Process

Nominations should be submitted to the Scholarship and Award Committee by March 13, 2020, by completing the form located at
