1st Lecture

Prof. Joann Fletcher (University of York):

'Kom el-Hetan & the people behind the monument'

Preceding the film highlighting the way new archaeological techniques are revealing Kom el-Hetan's previously hidden landscape, Joann looks at the way new scientific techniques have similarly revealed new information about the physical remains of the king and his courtiers.

2nd Lecture

Dr. Stephen Buckley (Universities of Tübingen & York):

'From Kom el-Hetan to King's College: the making of a modern mummy'

Stephen discusses how his examination of the remains of Amenhotep III's family led to his rediscovery of the secrets of 18th dynasty mummification, culminating in the preservation of a modern body donor and ongoing collaboration with Kings College.

As official sponsors of the Colossi of Memnon, Amenhotep III Mortuary Temple Restoration Project, ***The SSAE is only 1 of 2 societies that has access to the film entitled 'Amenhotep III and his House for Millions of Years'.

****Buffet lunch will be a selection of finger foods, teas and coffee and dessert and will be served in a Meeting room next to the Browser café

There are also a number of cafés, pubs and eateries within walking distance.
