

Global Communication Association

Pyatigorsk State Linguistic University

The 8th Annual Conference of Global Communication Association

April 24-26, 2014

Sponsored by the
Pyatigorsk State Linguistic University
Pyatigorsk, Russia

COMMUNICATING THROUGH THE UNIVERSE

Media and Communication researchers, scholars, and graduates are invited to submit paper and panel proposals for inclusion in the 214 Global Communication Association (GCA) Conference. Authors may submit papers and panel proposals related to the following and related topics:

- Topical theoretical issues of current communication processes and development.
- Communication as an international and interethnic means in a new globalized world.
- Intercultural and cross-cultural communication in the modern age.
- Communication in multi-code space: language, culturological and didactic issues.
- The communication process, interpretation and translation.
- Verbal and non-verbal aspects of communication.
- Conceptual analysis of communication and human relations.
- The modes of communication in media, business, politics, advertising, education, and Internet.
- The impact of social media on human interaction, commerce, politics, and culture.
- Challenges and opportunities in teaching communication at colleges and universities.
- Global communication and dialogue of civilizations.
- Interpersonal, intercultural, and international relations in the digital age.

Proposals:

- Please submit a brief abstract (about 400 words) of the papers, including your complete contact information and affiliation, to Dr. Nadejda Greidina (gca2014@yahoo.com or greidina@yahoo.com) by January 15, 2014. Panel proposals should be submitted to Dr. Yahya R. Kamalipour, Purdue University Calumet (yrcamali@purdue.edu or greidina@yahoo.com). Proposals must include theme, abstract, title of each paper, a brief description of each paper (200 words), complete contact information, and email address of each presenter.

For Details and New Updates, Visit www.globalcomassociation.com

Optional Pre- and Post-Conference Tours to Post Olympic Sochi 2014