2022 Rainbow Saddle Club Leisure Riding Program (RSCLR) updated

The purpose of RSCLR is to recognize and reward RSC members who enjoy leisure riding/ driving. In order to participate in RSCLR, you must be an Active member of RSC and pay an annual enrollment fee. The enrollment is per rider; you may ride/drive multiple horses.

Once enrolled in the program, riders/drivers simply log the number of hours spent in the saddle riding or in the cart, driving horse(s) in non-competitive ways. This may include trail rides, taking lessons, riding in parades or riding in the practice pen. Competitive activities such as horse shows, fairs, competitive endurance riding, horse sales and giving lessons are not eligible hours.

At the end of the year, recognition will be given to the riders who have logged hours and awards to those that have reached the program's lifetime award levels.

If a rider pays a $10 fee they will be receive an award for the highest level reached.

If multiple awards are desired as levels are surpassed, the rider will pay a $25 fee. Fees are due at the time of enrollment.

The 2022 enrollment will run from January 1st (or once membership and enrollment is paid) through September 30th. Participants will have until October 4th to turn in their log sheets to the program coordinator for the hours to be counted for 2022 Year End Awards. Awards will be given for riders who have reached and/or surpassed the program lifetime award levels listed below.
