
Equity Council Meeting 1/20/22

—

“Educational equity means that every student has access to the educational resources and rigor they need at the right moment in their education across race, gender, ethnicity, language, disability, sexual orientation, family background and/or family income”

Goal: Review data and use that to find gaps

Attendees

Brian VerPloegh - present

Sarah Allen (Secretary)- present

Dominic Alvarez -

Lori Bachman - present

Jaxson Barkhurst -

Kip Barkhurst- present

Ingrid Hamblin (VP)- present

Dorian Harris-

Andrew Maestas -

Colleen Reed - present

Justin Solimon -

Vanessa Grose (Ms. Shoe) -

*If your name is not listed please add to this list, thank

Agenda

1. Message from Ms. Bachman
2. Create recruitment plan
 - a. Going back to the why (PowerPoint)
 - b. Making a plan

Minutes

1. From Ms Bachman. See the attached powerpoint in the google classroom. It reviews the executive recommendation for funding. Their priorities are attainment (graduation), attendance, achievement. Our focus points in the Equity Council might be to improve learning for Native American students, those who receive special ed services and English Language Learners.
 2. Recruitment Plan
 - a. The school's four pillars are what lead the mission of the school.
-

- b. Our Mission “Lead with equity focused leadership and through continuous improvement.”
- c. Equity is not the same as equality. We strive for equity. An adequate education is our goal. This comes down to having choices when they are finished with school.
- d. We can look at our current numbers and demographics to determine what our needs are for participation in the equity Council. We should be looking for members who: Community members, small business owners, Hispanic, African American or Native background.

Items for next meeting

- 1. Action Points-
 - a. Mr. VerPloegh will reach out to existing members and see if they are still able to serve on the Council.
 - b. Our challenge is to reach out to one parent and one community member and talk to them and grow interest in the Equity Council.

Next Meeting Date (We are staying with the third Thursdays every month)

Thursday, 2/17/22 @ 3:30pm