A PASSAGE FROM OUR BOOK SEEMS APPROPRIATE FOR OUR WEEKEND TOGETHER

So Let each family play together or separately as much as their circumstances warrant. We are sure God wants us to be happy, joyous, and free. We cannot subscribe to the belief that this life is a vale of tears, though it once was just that for many of us. But it is clear that we made our own misery. God didn't do it. Avoid then, the deliberate manufacture of misery, but if trouble comes, cheerfully capitalize it as an opportunity to demonstrate His omnipotence.

The story begins in the back of Karl K's van on a return trip from Founders Day in Akron, OH. It started as most of these things do...just a casual conversation between friends. We can imagine it went something like this. "Whose hand is on my knee?!?!" Oh.... No... that's a different story....see below.

Karl K: "You know, it's a shame that we only get to see our friends once a year in Akron."

Otis P: "Yeah, it would be nice to see them more often."

So it continued with Karl, Otis and Jim discussing the possibilities. Then somebody went ahead and made a suggestion.

"Why don't we call Chuck from PA, John from NJ, and Roger from TN to see if they would be interested in getting together one more time a year? And while we're at it let's check out this Ramada Inn."

So they go to the Ramada, and are informed that they don't have any conference facilities; but the Howard Johnson across the street does. Why don't you call them? And there you have it; Five conferences at the mouse infested Howard Johnson and now a few more years at the Holiday Inn. It's amazing what can happen when you put a few keen alcoholic minds to work in the back of a van for a few hours.
