A Note from Rick: Markets steady again this week at TLA. This has been the 3rd week in a row with relatively steady prices. This to me is a sign that these prices are what we will be working with for the short term. Dairy cattle prices and slaughter cattle prices are the two markets that have not bounced back to the levels we had in late February/ early March. We sold 2 small herds of cows on Tuesday and the market was mixed in my opinion. Good, young, fresh cows sold ok, but after that it was pretty tough. Hopefully, as more and more of our country is able to open back up we will see the markets adjust accordingly. We were able to have our first horse sale back in the horse arena on Saturday. The sale committee put together a great lineup of horses and they sold well. We would like to thank all of the consignors and buyers for sticking with us and keeping their horses through all the delays and uncertainty. I have to admit that I had goosebumps when that first horse went through the ring and Jarron started selling. We have missed it and are so thankful to be able to get back to it, even with restrictions. Hope to see you soon at TLA!
