

PREPARING TO WAIT

*³¹but those who wait for the LORD shall renew their strength, they shall mount up with wings like eagles,
they shall run and not be weary,
they shall walk and not faint. Isaiah 40:31*

November is a month of wrapping up and preparing. As children of God, we have so much to be thankful for! We shouldn't reserve giving thanks until that one day in November, nor should we wait for that day either. We should be thankful each and every day of our lives. Living in this reality is easier when we realize and accept: All that we have is a gift from God: ourselves, our time, and our possessions.

Many congregations dedicate a day in the November for the congregation to reflect, pray, and ask God for his direction in the coming year. Would you be in prayer listing to God for his desire for you and Mt. Hermon? The church year ends on November 29 as the church will celebrate Christ the King Sunday. We gather to "celebrate the reign of Christ and his victory over death, yet we await the consummation of all things yet to come." Would you begin now, your prayers of expressing thanks to God for all that he has entrusted to you?

November is the month of giving thanks. It seems as though the retail world has tried to simply erase the importance of waiting and thanking from our worlds. It seems we go from pool noodles, sand buckets, and beach towels to Christmas trees, flickering lights, and snow decorations. Where is the thanksgiving?

What does it look like in your life if you simply live from one holiday or day of remembrance to another? When do you live in the here-and-now without longing to live in the past, and at the same time, live without living for the future.

We are children of God who live in hope. As we look and hear of the world's woes, it doesn't take much of a stretch to see that the world does not live in the same of Jesus Christ as we do. May we continue to wait, worship, and proclaim the world being active as we wait. Join me in a posture of thankfulness, hopefulness, and waiting on the return of our Lord.

Sister in Christ,

Pastor Gina

We are also looking for volunteers to help us organize the donated items the week after Thanksgiving and volunteers to help the day of the Free Garage Sale. If you are interested in assisting us, please let Diane Boulware know.

Angel Tree Ministry

Spread Christmas Cheer by sponsoring a child for Christmas. Each year we help children in the community have a brighter Christmas by buying gifts for them. Please make plans to sponsor a child this Christmas. We will also include parents of the children on the tree with some of their needs. We will need the gifts by Sunday, December 10.
